Mountlake Terrace Council to View Other Cities

The Mountlake Terrace City Council will take a first-hand look at what other cities are doing for downtown development as part of an August 5 bus tour, beginning from City Hall at 8:30 am.

“It helps to look at other downtowns,” said Michelle Angrick, one of the Councilmembers who suggested the tour. “That way, we can see both good and bad examples and get a clearer idea of what kind of development would work for Mountlake Terrace and what would not work so well.”

Mountlake Terrace intends to adopt its own Town Center Plan by the end of this year.

Cities to be visited during the tour include Mill Creek, Kirkland, Redmond, Renton, and Shoreline.

Planning Commission members will also visit the sites, since they will be advising the Council later on a Town Center Plan for Mountlake Terrace.

For a specific schedule of sites to be visited, contact the City Clerk’s Office at (425) 744-6278 or the city’s website at <http://www.cityofmlt.com/news.htm>.
